If you haven't sent in anything for the treat bags, please consider letting your child bring something to put in each bag. I know they would really enjoy any treat you are willing to share over the holidays!

Polar Express Activity: Our first grade classes will be doing something special on Wednesday. We will be doing some literacy activities with the movie “Polar Express”. Along with that theme, we would like to invite your child to wear his or her pajamas to school Friday as a special treat that goes along with our movie. We will be serving pancakes and apples for breakfast so please do not have them eat before coming to school. The movie will begin early on Wednesday morning, and we will be doing some activities throughout the day to correlate the movie with our curriculum. Let’s all enjoy this special holiday treat!
